HOT STUFF

This could be the craziest scheme in law-enforcement history. It's action comedy as Dom DeLuise and Suzanne Pleshette set up their own fencing operation to beat the mob at its own game. Just one catch—they end up with more "hot stuff" than they can handle. Profanity. (PG-1:27) July 6,17,19,25

Going in Style

How in the world are three tottering oldsters going to rob a bank? Well, step back as George Burns, Art Carney and Lee Strasberg step out to take a bank to the cleaners. Here's a comedy-drama about an unusual way to spend those golden years. Profanity. (PG-1:38) July 7,10,25,31

THE AWAKENING

Charlton Heston

Attempting to save his daughter from demonic forces, an archaeologist meets the supernatural head-on. Charlton Heston plays an Egyptologist so obsessed with finding the mummy of an ancient, evil queen that he unwittingly allowed its spirit to enter his child at birth. Susanah York and Stephanie Zimbalist co-star in this unusual occult-horror movie. From a novel by Bram Stoker, author of Dracula. Adult situations and language, graphic violence. (R-1:45) July 25,30

Bronco Billy

Clint Eastwood

Meet the trick-shooting, trick-riding star of his own Wild West Show—Bronco Billy, who's almost too good to be true. And so is the movie with its different, charming role for Clint Eastwood. When Sondra Locke reluctantly joins this ragtag circus, the trouble starts. And so does the fun, as good conquers evil after all. Or does it? "Eastwood's most enjoyable film in years" (Chicago Tribune) Adult situations and language. (PG-1:56) July 26,30
